THANKS TO OUR SPONSORS AT THE MICHIGAN COUNCIL FOR ARTS AND CULTURAL AFFAIRS, THE NATIONAL ENDOWMENT FOR THE ARTS, AND THE HOLLAND AREA ARTS COUNCIL.

February 6, 2022 – The Adams Family Band, playing classic oldies. This is a band with years of musical background. They provide great entertainment and a positive happy experience for any audience. Bring the family.

February 20 – Kevin McDaniel's House Band, playing country, rock, and your favorite oldies. Kevin and his band perform in Southwest Michigan and Indiana. They have a good following and are a popular band in this area.

March 6 – “Hot Off the Press” A P Dailey News, playing a mixture of cover songs, country, pop, and fun rock and roll. Andy Paul keeps this band moving and they will provide a riveting afternoon of entertainment. They are made up of seasoned musicians who have had bands of their own in the past. Jack Dailey, Darl Lane, Ron Stull, Jimmy Howard. They are “Hot” and ready to entertain you with an afternoon of the A P Dailey News.

March 20 – Natchez Trace, playing classic and popular rock and roll, oldies and more. These three musicians make up one of the most requested bands at our downtown summer concert series. We are looking forward to seeing them after a long hiatus.

April 3 – Seventh Son Blues Band, A Kalamazoo band founded in 1985. Winner of the Kalamazoo Valley Blue Association challenge in 2005 and 2013, journeying both times to Memphis to perform in the International Blues Challenge. They have 3 CDs with classic and obscure tunes as well as originals. They will delight you with their style and talent.

April 24 – Calabogie Road Bluegrass Band is a trip you will want to take. This five piece band has more than 100 years of collective experience performing throughout Michigan and Indiana. Bluegrass favorites from Bill Monroe and Flatt and Scruggs right up through Alison Krause and Rhonda Vincent. Known for their tight harmonies and finest pickin’ around, you will not want to miss this afternoon of entertainment.
